

Non-partisan 2012 PRESIDENTIAL PEACE VOTER GUIDE 	Republican Candidate	Democratic Candidate
	 Governor Mitt Romney	 President Barack Obama
Where the candidates stand on the issues:
Pledges to bring U.S. troops home from Afghanistan by 2014	No	Yes
Has committed to direct negotiations with Iran	No	Yes
Opposes major increases in military spending	No	Yes
Advocates the worldwide, verifiable abolition of nuclear weapons	No	Yes
Champions treaties reducing Russian & US nuclear arms	No	Yes
Rules out a preemptive military attack on Iran	No	No
Opposed the invasion of Iraq	No	Yes
Opposed retaining US troops in Iraq for the indefinite future	No	Yes
Opposes drone attacks, which frequently kill innocent civilians	No	No
Opposes laws requiring voters to show hard-to-get voter ID	No	Yes

This non-partisan Voter Guide is based on candidate actions and public statements which have been thoroughly researched. It is provided as a public service and is not an endorsement of any candidate or political party. Readers are urged to reproduce it and distribute it widely. This non-partisan guide was produced by:

The Coalition for Peace Action, Princeton NJ
Distributed by:
South Mountain Peace Action
101 Plymouth Avenue, Maplewood NJ 07040
973-763-9493 www.BeAboutPeace.com

Non-partisan 2012 PRESIDENTIAL PEACE VOTER GUIDE 	Republican Candidate	Democratic Candidate
	 Governor Mitt Romney	 President Barack Obama
Where the candidates stand on the issues:
Pledges to bring U.S. troops home from Afghanistan by 2014	No	Yes
Has committed to direct negotiations with Iran	No	Yes
Opposes major increases in military spending	No	Yes
Advocates the worldwide, verifiable abolition of nuclear weapons	No	Yes
Champions treaties reducing Russian & US nuclear arms	No	Yes
Rules out a preemptive military attack on Iran	No	No
Opposed the invasion of Iraq	No	Yes
Opposed retaining US troops in Iraq for the indefinite future	No	Yes
Opposes drone attacks, which frequently kill innocent civilians	No	No
Opposes laws requiring voters to show hard-to-get voter ID	No	Yes

This non-partisan Voter Guide is based on candidate actions and public statements which have been thoroughly researched. It is provided as a public service and is not an endorsement of any candidate or political party. Readers are urged to reproduce it and distribute it widely. This non-partisan guide was produced by:

The Coalition for Peace Action, Princeton NJ
Distributed by:
South Mountain Peace Action
101 Plymouth Avenue, Maplewood NJ 07040
973-763-9493 www.BeAboutPeace.com